A FEATURE IN THE PANIC.

JOBBERS OF GOODS to "Country Merchants," both in New York and Boston, having become at last alive to the dangers of long credits and indefinite extensions,—and alarmed at the extent to which these suicidal customs have been carried, are playing over again towards their customers, the very game for which they have loudly denounced the banks.

They have gone from one extreme to another; from reckless selling to every body who would buy,—on eight and ten months,—and extending even the notes covering such purchases from time to time, "fearing to drive off a good customer" by refusal, to addressing circulars at random to customers who have bought on six months and paid regularly when due, gravely informing them, that hereafter they will "sell for cash only;" a spasmodic resolution which will be kept just long enough to embarrass their customers, and drive them for new purchases to new houses.

It don't require a sage to foresee this as the inevitable result of such a resolution at this time. It is merely a feature in the panic, for the presumption clearly is, that but very few indeed among our business men are prepared to pay up all arrears of the past, all sums due, and anticipate future payments in cash.

REMARKABLE INSTANCE OF HEROISM.

The Rev. Mr. Scudder, of India, in a letter to the Christian Intelligencer, gives the following instances of heroism, called forth by the Indian mutinies:

Let Americans never be ashamed that Englishmen are their forefathers. England is a noble country. Her sons are heroes and her daughters are heroines. This rebellion has brought out deeds that deserve to be associated with those valorous actions which we, with troubling pulses, read in history. In one place, a lady and her husband fled in their carriage. He stood upright. She took the reins. She lashed the horses through a band of mutineers, while he, with cool aim, shot dead one who seized the horses' heads, and another who climbed upon the carriage behind to cut him down. On they fled, till again they found themselves among foes, and a rope stretched across the road which made further progress appear impossible. True to herself, she dashed the horses at full speed against the rope, and as they bearing it down, stumbled, she, by rein and whip, raised them, while her husband's weapons again freed them from those who succeeded in leaping upon them. He was wounded, but both escaped with their lives. In another place, a young lady, the daughter of an officer, shot seven mutineers before they killed her. A captain, pressed by his Sepoys, with his good sword slew twenty-six of them before he fell.

NOT A FAVORABLE SIGN.

The Albany Knickerbocker says:

Business is looking up. There was no less than 17 prisoners sent to jail on Saturday. This is a large increase on former operations. Among these were seven for larceny.

This is one of the sad aspects of the depressed state of business in the country, and one which of all others ought to be most guarded against by the community. Larceny is no remedy for beggary. It is better to beg than to steal. The Alms House is preferable to the Prison.

CHARGE OF FORGERY.—Roswell Hovey a resident of Brooklyn, was taken into custody on a warrant issued by Justice Osborn, charged with having forged the name of J. Grundy as endorser upon the back of a check for $200, drawn by Mr. W. W. Gilman. The check was presented to the Paying Teller of the Shoe and Leather Bank, and cashed. Mr. Andrew N. Street, President of the aforesaid Bank is the complainant in the case. Hovey is also charged with selling a forged check for $358 to Mr. William A. Guest, of 33 Wall street. The check was drawn upon the Farmers and Mechanics Bank of Hartford. The accused was taken before the Magistrate and committed to the Tombs for trial in default of $4,000 bail on each complaint. Mr. Hovey denied the allegations as made against him, and expresses the belief that he will be able to establish his innocence.

Among other results of the existing pressure is mentioned the emigration of considerable numbers of Irish long resident among us there return to Ireland. This is referred to as something new and remarkable, but such is not the case. For years past there has been a steady emigration to Ireland of persons either dissatisfied with their luck here, or of those who, having been more or less successful in a pecuniary point of view, preferred to go home to spend their money. The improved and improving condition of things in Ireland, has had the effect to strengthen this counter current, which no doubt just now, receives an additional impulse from the financial condition of this country.—N. Y. Tribune.

DEATH OF A VETERAN MECHANIC.—A. Uriah Tust died at Charleston on Thursday last at the advanced age of 90 years and 8 months. During his long life his health has been remarkably good. He was for many years a blacksmith in the old Navy Yard, and worked upon the frigate Constitution, upon which vessel he drove the first bolt. He was an original member of the Mechanics' Charitable Association. His memory to the last was remarkably good. Traveler.

"Young man, do you believe in a future state?"—"In course I do; and, what's more, I intend to enter it as soon as Betsy gets her things ready."—"Go to, young man, you are incorrigible—go to."—"Go to! It was not for the law against bigamy, whip me if I wouldn't go a dozen."—"But you supposed Deacon, that a man of your age would give such advice to a man just starting into life."

LOCAL NEWS.

It will undoubtedly be necessary to make some provision for the poor of this city for the coming winter, and we perceive that his honor the Mayor has recommended to the City Council, a certain course to be pursued, the merits or the demerits of which we shall take another time to discuss. Should any liberal movement really be contemplated for the relief of the poor by our citizens who are able to lend a helping hand, we, by all means, advise that the arrangements should be made entirely without reference to the movements of the city Government. If this can be done, donations would undoubtedly be liberally bestowed by a large portion of our citizens who might otherwise withhold their charities from the general fund. As it will be necessary to purchase large quantities of coal, and perhaps provisions, it is desirable that these purchases should be made at the very lowest cash prices, and that a fair competition should be allowed; to all those who feel disposed to put in propositions for the sale of these articles, consequently, the judges of the propositions should be upright honorable men, enough of whom could be easily chosen, and would undoubtedly serve. The course of the city government, thus far has been so bare-facedly, true to itself, and those of whom it is composed, that no sane man would wish to trust to its impartial administration in any matter of vital importance to the community which can as well be put in less partial hands.

To illustrate this fact, we have only to mention that this city contains some dozen more or less of coal merchants, who have each an equal right to sell coal for the use of the poor, yet should matters continue to be managed as heretofore, no one can doubt who will be the CITY COAL MERCHANT for the forthcoming winter.

The introductory Lecture of the Aquidneck course, was delivered last evening, by Bishop Clarke, and although the weather was rather threatening it was listened to by quite a large concourse of our most respectable citizens. The Bishop was unusually fortunate in the selection of his subject, and illustrated it in that happy manner which always characterizes him.—The Committee were unable to announce the lecturer for next Thursday evening, but will do so as early as a day as possible. It is presumed that the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher will be secured.

We are at present enjoying a few days of beautiful fall weather, which gives us all a new impulse and makes us feel the loss of business and the "hard times" less than we otherwise would. The winter aspect of Newport is always more or less dull and we imagine that crises like the present although their effects are plainly visible among us, effect our staid and old fashioned business men, most of whom have a "pile" to fall back upon, less than the merchants of other and "faster" communities.

BARBERS WATER ELEVATOR is a new patent machine for raising water from wells. It is on exhibition at W. H. Bliss, store on Thames street. We have examined the model of this patent and find it to be a simple and we should judge exceedingly useful machine especially for raising water on farms where quantities are often necessary for watering stock. We understand that the rights to manufacture this machine in some states and counties of New England are still for sale.

The advertisement of "a Homestead for $10" which will be found in another column will be eagerly read by many who would like the comfort and liberty of a home of their own. The exceedingly low price for which a lot or even a farm can be procured in this part of Virginia will no doubt induce many purchasers and thus advance the price of land in that region, much to the advantage of those who still retain it, so that after all it will be advantageous for land holders, there to sell out a portion of their lands and induce further settlements.

FRANK LESLIE'S NEW FAMILY MAGAZINE AND GAZETTE OF FASHION has been sent in to us from Tilles News Depot. It is the Monarch of Monthlies being a large Imperial Octavo containing one hundred and two pages most of which are illustrated by beautiful engravings. Leslie is famous for getting up new and splendid enterprises all of which seem to meet with unusual success, his popularity with the ladies must account in a great measure for this. It is not surprising that it should be so as he has probably done more by his publications to interest, instruct, and amuse them than any of our American publishers of the same class.

MEDAL OF HONOR.—The French Emperor, by special decree, gives a medal of honor of the first class, to Capt. Walter Powers, of the U. S. ship "Howard," for his activity and energy in saving the French ship La Jeune Anne, shipwrecked near the Isle St. Martin.

Profound ignorance makes a man dogmatic. He who knows nothing, thinks he can teach others what he just now has learned himself; whilst he who knows a great deal, can scarce imagine any one not be acquainted with what he says, and speaks for this reason with more indifference.

GENERAL NEWS.

Correspondence of the Daily News.

NEW BEDFORD, Nov. 1st, 1867.

Editor of the News:—Here it is the first of November, and Autumn which has but a month longer to live, is giving her Annual lessons as taught by the falling leaves, the withering frost, the silence which pervades the air, and the general wreck and decay of vegetable matter. Already another year is concealed among the naked boughs; another summer is gone, and is secured among the declining flowers. Soon old Winter, who is a tyrannical chap in his way, and a great respecter of persons, will arrive after his long tour in the North. He has a warm affection for those who are in affluent circumstances, but turns a cold shoulder towards the poor and unfortunate, upon whose noses and abdomens he works his wicked designs with a particular and savage delight. Now is the time to buy our over-coats and over-shoes; to lay in our coals and examine our fire departments. Now is the time for young men to cultivate a closer acquaintance with their sweethearts,—and for husbands to study the dispositions of their ladies, and be on more friendly terms with their wives. Now is the time to study the causes of the great revolution,—to learn lessons of wisdom from the folly of the past, and heroically swear that we will dispense with our little foreign luxuries and gogaws. And now is the time above all things, to begin to consider our charities and baffle the felonious intentions of the wolf HUGGER, who is prowling and snarling around many a door chuckling at gaunt looking frames and pauper stomachs. Of all the virtues inculcated by St. Paul, none is so much needed at the present time as the one taught us in these divine words. "Now abideth faith, hope, charity—these three; but, the greatest of these is charity." "It is gratifying to witness the interest which is being manifested in many of the cities for the relief of the suffering and afflicted during the coming winter. It is one of the most cheering signs of the times to witness such bright manifestations of the love-kindled by the blessed example of Him who came down from heaven and went about doing good."

Since I last wrote you, a half a dozen suspensions or failures have been reported on the street, which we are glad to notice caused but a slight fluttering in mercantile circles. Although business operations have been somewhat checked for the present, none of those serious impediments and prostrations have been experienced that are chronicled in other cities. No "run" has been attempted upon any of the Banks excepting N. P. whom it is predicted cannot be run off the track on Tuesday next. Banks was here yesterday afternoon and made a speech, which delighted "everybody and his wife and family" Liberty Hall theatre was packed from parquette to gallery; and the frequent enthusiastic outbursts of applause which broke forth from the great assembly proved that the sentiments of the speaker were cordially endorsed by the people.—Mr. Banks is a gentleman of high character and great talents and attainments. He is fully awake to the exigencies of the times, and will show himself a live Governor. The people behold in him an image of that bold and manly youth whom Longfellow has painted, bearing a banner in his hand, upon which was blazoned the proud and aspiring motto:

"The shades of night were falling fast
As through an Alpine valley passed
A youth, who bore, mid snow and ice,
A banner with the strange device."

At the conclusion of his speech, at 5 o'clock, he was escorted to the depot by a large concourse of citizens, accompanied by the Band, on his way to Taunton. The expenses of the State Government have more than doubled within the last three years and the friends of retrenchment and reform regard the election of Mr. Banks as a matter of vital importance believing he willably command the old Bay State for the next years cruise and sail her right onward through wind and wave,

"In spite of rocks, or tempests roar,
In spite of false lights on the shore"

By an amendment of the City Charter, our Municipal election takes place on the 18th of December, instead of in March as formerly, so that by the time the excitement of the present election is over we shall be ready to engage in another. The present administration has been one of the most popular since the inauguration of the City Government, and we should suppose there could be but little opposition to the continuance in power of the Mayor and the most of his supporters.

The number of vessels that it is calculated will lay over at the wharfs during the winter is eighteen—some eight or nine more were hauled up last year. Should a favorable change, however, take place in finances a portion of them may sail in February. There are 324 whalers that belong in New Bedford, making the number that is now off in pursuit of the treasures of the deep, 316.

The fortification which has just been commenced below the city on Clark's Point, for which $150,000 has been appropriated, is certainly a very necessary means of defence for so large an amount of shipping, and its erection has been too long delayed. New Bedford for some years has been the third port as regards tonnage in the United States and all she has to protect her is an old fort which was thrown up in the time of the Revolution and subsequently improved by a paltry appropriation in 1841.—It was supplied at that time with nine twenty-four pounders, which were fired for the first and only time on the occasion of our national anniversary some seven years ago. It is a puny and formidable looking affair enough and a disgrace to the country.

I was much pleased with an article which appeared in your paper a short time since attributing the Commercial disasters which are flooding the country to the Banks and the ruinous system of foreign over-trading. Our importations or "little luxuries" such as silks, laces, carpets &c., in 1856, were rising $5,400,000, which was an excess of 12,000,000 over the previous year. England is continually holding over us promises to pay, greater in amount, than all that is contained in the vaults of every bank in the country. And what avail our promises to pay in metallic money when we have none? No wonder Wall street palpitates at the arrival of every British steamer. Our Commercial cities are at the mercy of foreign creditors. Our bank bills, which give motion to the business of the whole Union, are no better than filthy rags, without our ability to redeem them, and we have put it in the power of Great Britain, to stop their redemption whenever she chooses. This is no fiction. How was it in 1837? The discredit designedly thrown by the Banks of England on our mercantile agents residents in that country; no sooner reached our shores than the work of ruin commenced. Not a bank from Maine to Georgia could be without the shock. Our currency depreciated and bankrupt and disaster followed. It is time for the great Agricultural and industrial interests to move, or the entire object of the constitution "to promote the general welfare" will be defeated. Are we not at this moment realizing in all the bitterness of suffering, the consequences which were inflicted upon us in 1837, occasioned by the reckless demand for foreign commodities the previous year when our imports exceeded our exports, $61,317,000. Look to our manufacturing cities, created by the strong arm of the mechanic. Now that arm is paralyzed, and dejection and cheerfulness. The shuttle has almost ceased to move and the sound of the hammer strikes feebly on the ear. That stimulus which braced the muscles and nerved the limbs is gone. Our manufacturers have surrendered their occupation into foreign hands.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

ALPINE HAIR BALM

Restoring Gray Hair to its original Color.
It is warranted to cure Baldness, Scurf, Dandruff, Itching and all diseases of the skin. This Balm gives the scalp a new and healthy action; restores the coloring matter to the root of the Hair, which passes through the Hair and gives a natural color without the use of Hair Dye.
It keeps the hair from falling off.

Mr. Mason, Sir—I have found a Hair Restorative in your Alpine Balm, which has not merely changed the gray locks to their original, but has given them a glossy hue, which before they never had.

JEREMIAH S. ROSS,

Providence, May 20, 1867.

Providence, July 30, 1867.

C. A. P. Mason, Dear Sir—I am now using the Alpine Hair Balm, which I had of you, with most happy results. On the 30th of June last, my hair (which had been gray for more than six years) was fast falling off; but on the third application of the Balm it ceased falling, and is now firmly rooted, and very nearly its original color. By the use of one bottle, I confidently expect a complete, permanent, luxuriant and original head of hair. If every gray haired skeptic would try it, they would soon become "living epistles, known and read of all men," as having used the Alpine Hair Balm. Yours, &c.

JOHN F. TRESMOTT,
227 Westminster street, Providence.

TESTIMONY OF A LADY OVER 50 YEARS OF AGE.

Mr. Mason, Sir—I write to inform you how pleased I am with your Alpine Hair Balm.—My hair has been gray for a number of years, and I have been obliged to wear a front piece and cap; but have always found a difficulty when having a bonnet on to keep the front piece from working back and showing the white hair. Finally I concluded I would try your Alpine Hair Balm; I used one bottle, and my hair has come back to its natural color, which was brown. My hair is now perfectly free from dandruff and is soft and glossy.

Very respectfully, SARAH LYON.

READ! READ! READ!!

"Ye after-facted read," the following Certificate of cure of over 20 years' standing:
H. T. HELMHOFF, Dear Sir—I have been afflicted with an affection of the Bladder and Kidneys for over twenty years. I have tried physicians in vain, and at last concluded to give your genuine preparation a trial, as I had heard it highly spoken of. It afforded me immediate relief. I have used three bottles, and I feel much better than I have for twenty years previous. I have the greatest faith in its virtues and can make it known to the afflicted. Hoping this may prove advantageous to you in assisting you to introduce the medicine, I am truly yours,
M. McCORMICK,
Lewistown, Pa., Jan. 28, 1867.

Should any doubt Mr. McCormick's statement, he refers to the following gentlemen.
Hon. Wm. Bigler, ex-Governor, Pennsylvania.
Hon. Thos. B. Florence, Philadelphia.
Hon. J. C. Knox, Judge, Tioga Co., Pa.
Hon. J. S. Black, Judge, Philadelphia.
Hon. D. R. Porter, ex-Governor, Pennsylvania.
Hon. Ellis Lewis, Judge, Philadelphia.
Hon. R. C. Grier, Judge U. S. Court.
Hon. G. W. Woodward, Judge, Philadelphia.
Hon. W. A. Porter, City Solicitor, Philadelphia.
Hon. John Bigler, ex-Governor, California.
Hon. B. Banks, Auditor General, Washington, D. C.
And many others, if necessary.

SOMETHING NEW EVERY WEEK.

Testimony in favor of Prof. O. J. WOOD'S Hair Restorative Voluntary Certificates, of which one will be published every week.

CHATELAIN, III, June 27th, 1865.

I have used Prof. O. J. WOOD'S Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought, prematurely grey, but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so.

USE THE AMERICAN VEGETABLE

HAIR CURLING COMPOUND,
For Curling and Beautifying the Hair and Whiskers.

ALL who wish to improve the health and growth of the Hair and Whiskers, should not be without this compound. It has been fully tested to be the best article now in use. It gives a black and glossy appearance, and after the first application, will curl the hair in beautiful ringlets.

For gentlemen's Whiskers, nothing can be better for curling and making them thick and glossy. As this article is purely vegetable, it will not injure the hair, but will remove the unnatural dryness and harshness of the hair, which precedes its loss, and will increase its growth and give it a healthy and luxuriant brilliancy.

Many are the testimonies in its favor, and must be tried to be appreciated. Those wishing a beautiful head of hair, can have it by using the Curling Compound, which is put up in a nice box, richly labeled on four sides.—Price $1.

For the Skin and Complexion, use Dr. Le BARON'S Lily Cream. This article is composed of the most soothing substances known in the Vegetable Kingdom, and as it contains no poisonous or injurious materials, it can be used at all times and with entire safety, even upon the most delicate skin. Price only 25 cents and 50 cts. per bottle.

For sale by J. J. LEWIS, Providence, and R. L. Agent for the United States and the Canadas.

Sold whole-sale and retail by Messrs. HAZARD & CASWELL, Druggists, 12 Washington-square and 132 Thames street, Newport.

HEALTHY BREAD.

JAMES PYLE'S

DIETETIC SALERATUS

IS among the most important improvements of the present day. Every family throughout this land should be acquainted with its intrinsic value, and thereby escape the many evils arising from the use of common Saleratus—the caustic impurities of which are as destructive to health, by physicians generally common saleratus has the elements of caustic alkali, and readily acts on the coating of the stomach, thus deranging the digestive organs and paving the way of Dyspepsia and diseases of every kind. Children are the greatest sufferers and frequently die from infantile diseases, which in former years, were successfully treated, even without medical aid. But here is an article to be relied on.

James Pyle's Dietetic Saleratus, the result of many experiments, is entirely different from everything heretofore in use.—The perfection reached in purifying it, makes it as harmless to the stomach as flour itself, while in point of nicety it surpasses the best baking soda, and will make bread, biscuit and cake, beautifully light, nutritious, and suitable for the most delicate stomach. Every lady that tries it will use no other.

Beware of counterfeits.—Our great success has brought out a multitude of poisonous imitations. The genuine is packed in whole, half, and quarter packages, with the name of James Pyle on each. Manufacturing Dept., 313 Washington st., New York.

For sale at all the groceries in Newport, Providence and throughout the State.
